The Magic Face of Heart

A Poem

Kaneez Fatima Syeda, M.A. English, M.Phil. Candidate

When winds with frantic gestures pass my shapeless sense roam away.
Some tender tune my heart doth feel perhaps forlorn, on Alps of love which deities play

The Magic Face of Heart, a Poem

Some slumbered sweetness suddenly wakes and quietly steals away with printless feet The charm of winds so strongly works and shakes my spell-stopped fancy with some strong discrete motions

With winds, with waves, my entity shares some secret sweetness which doth soul possess A flash, a spark of truth, which life spares exposed the sweetness to her deep recess

Though sweetness and the tender tune do hardly own Yet secret is the magic face of heart alone.
