ABOUT COIMBATORE

Coimbatore is known as "the Manchester of South India" and is surrounded by serene Western Ghats, Ootacamund (Ooty), the Queen of Hills which is just about 90 kms away from the city. Coimbatore city is also famous for top class education, world class textile and superior health service. Coimbatore is also known for its hospitality, folklore and ancient temples. Coimbatore is very well connected by air, rail and road. Marudhamalai, which is one of the abodes of Lord Muruga, is located near our University. The atmosphere is serene with the herbal plants, the campus has a rich variety of flora and fauna and the beautiful peacocks and peahens steal our hearts with their enchanting movements.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

CULTURAL STUDIES

Cultural Studies is a field of academic study which is interdisciplinary in nature and interested in the power relations between human beings. The culture of a community includes various aspects: economic, spatial, ideological religious and political. Cultural studies aims at including all these in its ambit. Language, literature and cultural aspects of a community define its identity. They contribute to the values and survival strategies of the community. Hence understanding culture gains importance in the present day context.
